

THE SEA TURTLE

by Gary Clark

October 26 -27, 2019

Class size is limited to 28 students. It will be open to current Long Beach EGA members only through April 15, 2019. At that time registration will be open to others, however, membership in LBEGA, Pacific Southwestern Region is required.

This project has a very tropical look: the turtle is in full focus around the face and blends off as the water distorts the image. The student will get a feel for stitching on organza and tips for this style of work. The aim of this class is to become aware of the potential in organza. It is a lesson in "less is more", in sketching a subject, then training the viewer to where their eye needs to go.

Technique: Organza Embroidery
Kit Cost: $75

Skill Level: Intermediate

Design Size: 12 x 12

Kit Contents: Organza, Printed Cotton, Thread, Needle, Work Frame, Instructions & DVD.
(Note: The fish in the background are stitched in 1 strand of 6-stranded cotton. Some thread will be provided however, students may wish to bring their own colors. Remember the organza will mute the colors, so choose vibrant colors.)

Location: Long Beach City College, PCH Campus, Lifelong Learning Center, Bldg. QQ, Room 122
1305 E. Pacific Coast Hwy., Long Beach, CA 90806
