

CHANNEL ISLANDS CHAPTER EMBROIDERERS GUILD OF AMERICA PRESENTS TRIBUTE

Designed by Debbie Rowley

A tribute to the legendary Jean Hilton, this project features several “twisty” stitches attributed to the designer.

Teaching objectives:

- Encourage stitchers to develop an ease and confidence with “twisty” stitches
- Explore complex and layered stitches
- Discover several different thread textures

Tribute is filled with stitches developed by Jean Hilton. A center motif of small walnetos is stitched around Rhodes diamonds and waffle stitches, then moves into oblong Jessicas and crescents. Stacked herringbone stitches anchor 12 pointed stars, triangle Amadeus, layered Jessicas with arrow Amadeus, waffle stitches and a complex frame of Val's stitch, double herringbone, and trellis stitch.

Stitches include walnetos, diamond Rhodes, upright waffles, Jessica, crescents, herringbone, double herringbone, trellis, Amadeus, 12 pointed star, Val's stitch, layered partial Jessicas.
